The Siam

Set on 3 acres of verdant frontage along the city side of the Chao Phraya River, The Siam is a private 39-room luxury retreat located in Bangkok's royal Dusit district. Designed by internationally acclaimed architect Bill Bensley, the Art Deco inspired, Thai antique infused masterpiece is the Kingdom's premier urban resort. The Siam features Bangkok's most spacious suites while the elongated design of the hotel ensures total privacy from the outside world.

Mandarin Oriental Bangkok

For almost 130 years royalty, celebrities, dignitaries and distinguished travelers from Graham Greene to Rudyard Kipling have stayed in the legendary Mandarin Oriental Bangkok on the Chao Phraya River. Restaurants and bars, serving all types of Asian and Western cuisine, are in a class of their own and The Oriental Spa and fitness center are fabulous, with world-class treatments and facilities. This richly historical Oriental has been consistently ranked by top publications as one of the world's finest hotels. Having completed, in October 2019, a multi-million-dollar renovation the Mandarin Oriental Bangkok is now, more so than ever, timeless yet contemporary, classic yet cutting-edge, and a unique blend of luxury and comfort. It is a historic haven of calm on the banks of the river.

Rosewood Bangkok

The Rosewood Bangkok represents the city's freshest take on what a luxurious city hotel should look and feel like. Inspired by the graceful hand movement of the "wai" - the simple but beautifully elegant Thai gesture of greeting and welcome - the Rosewood's visually stunning vertical architecture gracefully perches along Bangkok's skyline. Thai culture is also emphasised by interior design and the water features within the hotel that are a tribute to Bangkok, a city built on water. One of our favorite aspects of the Rosewood is the speakeasy bar on the top floor housing a 6,000-vinyl collection, which you can choose from and play as you please! Centrally located and with direct access to the skytrain system, the Rosewood is a the perfect launchpad for an exploration of Bangkok,

The Peninsula Bangkok

Commanding river views, impeccable service and grand luxury are images that come to mind with The Peninsula Bangkok. Spacious, well-appointed rooms have panoramic views of the river and city skyline and are equipped with modern amenities you would expect from a luxury hotel. Fine furniture, Thai hardwood and classic silk accent the lobbies and bedrooms. The marble bathroom features two vanity units, hands-free telephones, built-in TV in bath tub and a separate shower room. This is high living!

Riva Surya

The Riva Surya Bangkok is a well appointed modern boutique hotel in Bangkok's old Royal district. Besides offering a picturesque riverside setting near many of Bangkok's most glittering sights Riva Surya also has a nice outdoor pool and garden area overlooking the Chao Phraya River. Nearby Phra Arthit Pier offers a convenient way to travel to other areas of the city by public transport or private long tail boat. The rooms are of contemporary design with spacious bathrooms and offer full amenities. The hotel's "babble & rum" restaurant brings a market-inspired rustic yet contemporary dining experience.

Ariyasom Villa

A true gem in the city, Ariyasom is a lovingly expanded house dating from 1942. Colonial charm and Thai design combine to create a sublime environment in the heart of Bangkok. Each room is individually decorated and the hotel's design is appointed with quality local and imported materials – old recycled teak floors, antique and reproduction furniture, Thai silk drapes. A gorgeous pool, yoga and meditation pavilion, spa, natural restaurant and prime location make Ariyasom an elegant sanctuary in the city. Owner-operated, many guests have commented that it is like staying in a museum-cum-boutique hotel. We won't disagree.

Capella Bangkok

Slated to open in Q1 of 2020, the Capella will be positioned directly between the Oriental and The Siam as far as style, room size, cost and amenities. One noteworthy addition to Bangkok accommodation: the Capella Bangkok will have the only luxury villas right on the riverfront. Located beside the soon to open Four Seasons, these two hotels will share some amenities such as shuttle boats.

Four Seasons Bangkok

The Four Seasons returns to Bangkok in grand style. Located on the Bangkok side of the river, a short walk from the city's transportation hub of Suphan Taksin, the hotel is expected to offer all the luxuries and outstanding service the brand is known for.

Anantara Chiang Mai

Chic, polished and cool, Anantara Chiang Mai is 'where it's at'. Situated on the banks of the Ping River, the property has multiple restaurants, a super long pool, fitness center and everything you would expect from a 5-star property. Each room and suite boasts private courtyards, open balconies and breathtaking views. Anantara's nostalgic appeal, stylish amenities and discreet service are geared to discerning guests with a penchant for gracious hospitality. There is a top-notch spa, and a stylish lounge beside the pool in the main lobby area. This is an excellent location for sunset drinks, canapés, and open air relaxation.

Rachamankha

Situated in the heart of historic Chiang Mai old city, the 25-room and suite Rachamankha is an inspired property designed in the style of Lanna temple, where aromatic frangipani trees line Sino-Thai style courtyards displaying exquisite antiques. Rooms feature solid wooden doors, four-poster beds, bamboo jalousies, and woven-reed mats. Signature cuisine, unique arts, and an owner-operated sense of intimate comfort make Rachamankha a truly inspirational boutique hotel.

137 Pillars House

Along the Mae Ping River, among soaring Thai pagodas, 137 Pillars House is situated amongst a verdant enclave of lady palms, mimosa trees and tropical flowers. 30 suites with every modern luxury exude Oriental elegance culminating in the original 19th century main building for which the hotel is named. Surrounding cultural treasures await discovery, as do the spa's Thai and aromatherapy treatments.

Tamarind Village

Tamarind Village is a 40-room, village-style resort in the center of the old walled town of Chiang Mai. Divided into three private courtyards, this boutique hotel is designed in the spirit of an ancient village, ensuring traditional ambiance. The ancient Lanna-style rooms face inward into a tranquil garden dominated by a two hundred year-old tamarind tree.

Four Seasons Chiang Mai

Four Seasons Resort Chiang Mai is magnificently set in the charming Mae Rim Valley of Chiang Mai, overlooking serene rice fields, verdant vegetation and mountains, and minutes away from Thailand's northern capital. This award-winning property is often regarded as the finest mountain resort in Thailand. From the acclaimed Thai cooking school to the world-renowned spa and flawless service, this northern oasis is a signature Four Seasons experience. Rooms are classic and contemporary Thai, with emphasis on tropical hardwoods, silk and art.

Location: Mae Rim, approximately 30 - 45 minutes drive north of Chiang Mai City and Chiang Mai Airport. The resort provides complimentary scheduled shuttle service to town.

Villa Mahabhirom

Villa Mahabhirom, or a villa of great pleasure in Thai, was conceived with the simple imagination of creating a place where friends, couples and families can come and enjoy their time together in a sophisticated, comfortable setting that threads history, culture, community, art, craft, and a sense of peace and well-being. Each Villa offers garden, courtyard plunge pool, main swimming pool or mountain view. Some Villas feature a covered, open-air living room on the ground level decorated with objet d'arts and antiques from the Owner's Private Collection.

Location: Villa Mahabhirom is located on the road to the historic Wat U Mong Temple, against the mountains of Doi Suthep. It is a mere 10-15 minute drive to downtown Chiang Mai or the chic Nimmanhaemmin neighbourhood.

Aruntara Riverside

Located on the banks of the Mae Ping river, Aruntara Riverside Boutique Hotel offers spacious rooms at good value and a convenient location to explore greater Chiang Mai. The design of the hotel is an architectural marriage between British Colonial and Northern Thai influence. Every piece of furniture has been exclusively designed and handmade by Thai craftsmen fitting into the overall Lanna concept.

Na Nirand Boutique

Comprised of six 'residences' set in a tranquil garden setting, Na Nirand aspires to promote, conserve, and convey local knowledge, in order to prevent its disappearance over time. The architecture is Lanna-colonial and the interiors are furnished in traditional Northern styles using plenty of wood finishing. The property is conveniently located on the Ping river within walking distance to the Night Bazaar.

Four Seasons Tented Camp Golden Triangle

One of the world's most talked about resorts, Four Seasons Tented Camp offers a luxurious, all-inclusive adventure package in the storied venue of the Golden Triangle. Activities vary from elephant care experience, spa treatments, Thai cooking, Golden Triangle excursion, Wine tasting, etc. Tents echo the spirit of early explorers while providing the modern comforts and amenities you'd expect at a signature Four Seasons property.

Location: The resort sits on a lush hillside on the Thailand side of the Myanmar border, and Ruak River. It takes about one hour from Chiang Rai Airport to port in the Golden Triangle, and a short boat ride to the resort.

Pa Sak Tong Luxury Estate

A secluded luxury estate set among acres of sprawling gardens, ponds and rice fields in Chiang Rai town, Pa Sak Tong Villas offer privacy and world-class service for wellness seekers in the picturesque heart of northern Thailand. A host of amenities, including chef, butlers, private pools, gym and spa await you. Well-appointed and with tasteful decor involving Thai and Burmese antiques, this stunning estate provides ample opportunities for fun, romance, relaxation and exploring.

Baan Sak Tong - 5 bedroom private villa 700m² / 7,535ft²

An exclusive villa framed by seven acres of lush vegetation and overlooking a lotus pond, Baan Sak Tong promises a restorative holiday of relaxing and exploring the cultural wonders of Chiang Rai and northern Thailand.

Khum Sak Tong - 6 bedrooms 2,350m² / 25,300ft²

Khum Sak Tong's four luxury villas are nestled in 10 acres of meticulously tended gardens, streams, paths and ponds — a true nature-lover's retreat that's ideal for larger families or small groups.

Anantara Golden Triangle Elephant Camp & Resort

The Anantara is a luxury lodge nestled over the confluence of the Mekong and Ruak rivers, in the famous Golden Triangle. The resort includes traditional spa facilities, as well as an infinity pool, fitness center, sauna, squash and tennis courts, and a Thai cooking school. The dramatic high column-lined entrance, wooden carvings and artwork throughout the property are reminiscent of a Lanna palace, appropriate for a luxury hotel perched at the gateway to Indochina. A defining attribute is the resort's very own elephant camp situated within the property. A variety of activities with the elephants are offered as well as other activities and tours.

Location: The resort sits on a lush hillside on the Thailand side of the Myanmar border. It takes about one hour from Chiang Rai Airport to the hotel. From the hotel clients can walk to Hall of Opium Museum across the road.

The Legend Chiang Rai

The Legend is a charming boutique property in Chiang Rai, designed in Thai-Lanna style and set in a garden amidst flower ponds and brick walking paths. Spacious, white, minimalist architecture gives the rooms a comfy, luxurious appeal. The property backs onto the Mae Kok River and provides a glimpse of riverside life each morning.

Location: the Legend is located on the bank of Mae Kok River, secluded somewhat from Chiang Rai city, only 15 minutes drive from Chiang Rai Airport and a few minutes to the city centre.

Phu Chaisai

The Phu Chaisai is an oasis of spirituality. Noted designer ML Sudavadee Kriangkrai built Phu Chaisai as a labour of love. An abode for solace and peace of mind, you will not find TV's or alarm clocks here. Luxury villas are made of bamboo, clay and natural materials. In the warm embrace of Mother Nature, one can find peace with their inner selves during a stay here. Al fresco dining and a natural spa make the Phu Chaisai an integral part of the essential Thai experience. This is a rustic, charming boutique resort in the hills of Doi Mae Salong.

Location: Located in the Doi Mae Salong hills. Approximately one hour drive from Chiang Rai Airport and 30 minutes drive to Doi Tung and Mae Fa Luang Royal Garden. Best location with comfort for a hike in highland tea terraces and villages, etc.

Katiliya Mountain Resort and Spa

Katiliya is an all-suite resort set amongst the rolling hills of Thailand's northernmost province, Chiang Rai. Facilities include a large outdoor pool, a grand Jacuzzi with ambient temperature sections, library, restaurant, bar and complimentary hi-speed internet throughout the property. Pamper yourself where gorgeous views abound and sounds of nature fill the air.

Anantara Layan

Anantara Layan Phuket Resort is a sanctuary of tranquility set within a bay on Phuket's Western coast. Laying claim to a private stretch of Layan beach, famous for white sands and turquoise waters, Anantara Layan combines traditional tropical design with modern touches and amenities. Boasting a luxury collection of 30 rooms and suites, 47 pool villas, and 15 pool residences at this resort you are spoilt with choice. Spa treatments, yoga, and a wide range of resort facilities and services are at your disposal.

Location: located in the west of Phuket, around thirty minutes from Phuket International airport.

Amanpuri

Amanpuri, which means peaceful place, is the first and original Aman resort. It was created by the architect who designed the Winter Palace of the former Shah of Iran. Inspired by Ancient Ayutthaya architecture, each luxurious pavilion and villa features private outdoor sun decks and private dining terraces overlooking lush vegetation and the pristine Andaman Sea, and come with a personal cook and butler. Participate in activities at the Beach Club, take a sea excursion on one of the resort's charter fleets or enjoy a personalized wellness immersion program, these are all part of the exclusive experience that is Amanpuri!

Location: Located at the edge of Surin on the quiet Pansea Beach, the resort is about a 30 minute drive from Phuket Airport and Phuket Old town. Edged by a fine white sand beach and turquoise water, you won't want to (or need to) leave this beautiful property.

Andara Resort Villas

Nestled amidst lush tropical surrounds overlooking the Andaman Sea on the Central West coast of Phuket. Created by Allan Zeman's Hong Kong based Lan Kwai Fong group, Andara Resort is an ideal luxury getaway. Stunning sea views, private infinity pools with resort facilities second to none and a range of accommodation options ensure an unforgettable stay. Thai luxury, alongside a COMO Shambhala wellness retreat and two world-class restaurants for Thai and Italian cuisine. With 79 rooms and suites and 27 private luxury villas, the resort maintains an intimate and relaxed atmosphere despite its large size. COMO Beach Club on Naka Yai Island is only 30-40 minutes by boat and provides guests with a true beach vacation experience on an intimate private swathe of sand.

Location: 30 minutes drive from Phuket Airport and approx 45 minutes from Phuket Old town. The resort is located in a secluded area on the east side of Phuket where several local piers are situated, including the Royal Phuket Marina and the Boat Lagoon Marina. Providing its location, the resort does not have beach access, and therefore the COMO Beach Club on Naka Yai Island has been created to provide guests with beach experience.

Keemala

Situated on the fringes of Phuket's Kamala rainforest, Keemala is best described as a pool villa wonderland woven into the forest and overlooking the Andaman sea. The resort takes its inspiration from imaginative island tribal culture and all villas come in different, totally unique, styles: tree pool house, clay cottages, bird's nest villas and tent villas. These private villas are truly sanctuaries of peace and wellbeing where, as the resort likes to say, you can go back to nature without going back to basics.

Grounded in a holistic philosophy, healthy cuisine made from home-grown ingredients and cleansing spa treatments complement the lush surroundings of thick forests, streams and even a waterfall. Keemala is just a few minutes car ride down to Kamala Beach so no not to worry about getting your beach fix while you are here as well.

Location: Located around 45 minutes from Phuket International Airport, Keemala stunning properties on the island. Kamala Beach is a 10-minute shuttle ride away.

Rosewood Phuket

At an exquisite location along a 600-meter beachfront at Emerald Bay, Rosewood Phuket is a tropical beach hideaway akin to an ideal ocean village. The luxury Phuket hotel features innovative architecture with subtle Thai influences blends organically into a lush natural landscape, while sun-weathered shores and glistening, crystalline waters help celebrate luxury island living.

From the spacious 130 sqm residential-style pavilions to the 253 sqm two-bedroom pool villas, all accommodations enjoy stunning sea views and easy beach access. Furnished comfortable from natural materials with subtle Thai influences the living spaces enjoy abundant natural light from floor-to-ceiling windows.

Location: The Rosewood Phuket is located on an isolated beach facing west into the Andaman sea, around one hour from Phuket International Airport.

SALA Phuket

The Sarojin is charmingly ensconced in a garden setting with direct private access to a secluded 11 km white sand beach edging the Andaman Sea. The property is segregated by a saltwater estuary and is just one hour northwest of Phuket International Airport. Comprised of 56 luxury guest residences, each was carefully designed to allow abundant space and privacy to blend harmoniously with nature. Sublime, serene, peaceful.

Location: situated on a stunning Pakarang Cape in Khao Lak, approximately 1.5 hours drive north west of Phuket Airport, The Sarojin is secluded on a gorgeous stretch of a white, sand coastline on the mainland of Phang Nga Province.

The Slate Phuket

This is a hip concept resort which was recently renovated where every piece of furniture, every fixture and garden tool fits within the theme of old Phuket tin mines. The designed Coqoon Spa is a perfect backdrop for a day of relaxation and wellness. This is a supremely funky new spin on Phuket resorts. THE SLATE is a striking, poetic reminder of raw beauty, of vision and of a rich bygone era.

Location: A ten minutes drive from Phuket Airport takes you to the Slate. The resort is set along Phuket's sheltered northern shore in a seductive setting of lush plantation. This is not a seaview resort but backs onto the sea. Across a small beach road from the resort's Beach Club, you're on the quiet and golden sand Nai Yang beach.
